One additional though for the General on the guest list for the dinner for Lee: Alan Greenspan. Right rank and temperament for Lee; may improve Lee's view of the US economy. Don't know how the President views him.

Wilma G. Hall (HALL)
Dona F. Proctor (PROCTOR)

FROM: Edward A. Hewett
(HEWETT)

SUBJECT: For the General on Gorbachev

- 1.) Gorbachevs' daughter, Irina, is in her low 30's.
- 2.) Chernyayev was not able to come due to a medical condition, so now there will be five at the dinner:

Mr. and Mrs Gorbachev, and daughter Irina
Nikolai Petrakov (his former economic advisor) Pavel Palaschenko (who will both interpret, and discuss substance)

In addition, Mrs Gorbachev would like to bring her personal interpreter for the trip, which I think is fine.

THAT MAKES SIX TOTAL, including one pure interpreter, and one half interpreter.

- 3.) Dropping Chernyayev raises the question again of who on our side (which we should decide soon):

POTUS and Mrs. Bush
One Family member?
you
Baker
Hewett?

plus one or two interpreters (the second for conversation before dinner--possibly superflous).

DECISION TO BE MADE:

- 1.) I assume Mrs. G. can have her own interpreter.
- 2.) Who is to come on our side? We should invite Baker if not to eat?

that is the decision.

RE: Dinner Guests

Laurie Firestone has asked for approved lists for both the Gorbachev Dinner and the Lee Kuan Yew Dinner. As I understand, the following list has been approved by the General for the Gorbachev dinner:

Mr. & Mrs. Gorbachev
Irina Virgahskaya (daughter)
Anatoly Chernyayev
Nikolai Petrakov (former econ advisor)
Pavel Palazchenko (assistant & Interp)

President & Mrs. Bush
Gen Scowcroft
Ed Hewett

Sec & Mrs. Baker* (Laurie's office said Mrs. Baker would probably be the right one to round off the 6, but they would leave the decision whether or not to invite another member of their family up to the President and Mrs.)
(Interp)

Re Lee Kuan Yew dinner, Doug is checking to be sure Mrs. Lee is coming. That being the case, following is proposed list for that dinner:

President & Mrs. Bush
Gen Scowcroft

Sec & Mrs Baker (or Mr. Eagleburger & wife)

???Former President Nixon (per Doug, if dinner is to be a wisemen's dinner)

???Jon Huntsman (per Doug, would help in getting accepted as the President's choice for new U.S. Amb)

Mr. & Mrs. Lee Kuan Yew
Ambassador & Mrs. S. R. Nathan (Emb of Singapore)

Could you please have the General clear on the above two dinner lists. Once he has approved, I will forward the names to Laurie.

Thanks very much.
