MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

From: Chase Untermeyer

Subj: Delegation to 30th Anniversary of Cyprus' Independence

Cyprus will commemorate the 30th anniversary of its independence 30 September-3 October. State, while warning that some aspects of the ceremonies may be seen as offensive to the Turks and Turkish Cypriots, nevertheless recommends you send a delegation to this event.

In particular, State recommends that the delegation be headed by Secretary Derwinski. This would be fine, though Ed has already headed a delegation (to Poland for the 50th anniversary of the outbreak of World War II). These Cabinet members have not yet headed delegations: Nick Brady, Manuel Lujan, Clayton Yeutter, Lou Sullivan, Jack Kemp, Sam Skinner, Carla Hills, Dick Darman, and Bill Bennett.

I would appreciate your guidance on the following options: Go with Ed; go with another Cabinet member; go with a Bush family member; or go with someone else.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

FROM: James A. Baker, III J.A.B.

SUBJECT: Recommendations of Ranks of Ambassador and Minister for U.S. Representatives

Following for your approval are recommendations for Rank of Ambassador, Personal Rank of Ambassador and the Rank of Minister for U.S. representatives to arms negotiations and other activities. The Ranks of Ambassador and Minister accorded during the representatives' tenure of office expected to exceed six months will require Senate confirmation. The Personal Rank of Ambassador, which is valid for six months, does not require Congressional action.

NUCLEAR AND SPACE TALKS

RECOMMENDATION:

Linton F. Brooks, for Rank of Ambassador while serving as Deputy Head of Delegation to the Nuclear and Space Talks

Linton F. Brooks, the Deputy Head of Delegation to the Nuclear and Space Talks, should be granted the Rank of Ambassador, which requires Senate confirmation, while serving as Deputy Head of delegation. This title will provide symmetry in protocol terms with the Soviet delegation, enhance Brooks' ability to brief our allies as we come closer to agreement, and continue a precedent for such an appointment begun by the previous Deputy Head of delegation who held the rank of Ambassador. Brooks is a recently retired Navy officer who spent the past three years on the National Security Council staff working on the START negotiations.

26 Feb

Subj: Delegations

Your and BPB's help is earnestly sought for names of citizens willing to sacrifice all for a couple of South Pacific getaways:

* AUSTRALIAN-AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP (Coral Sea) WEEK, 4-10 May: Jim and Sheila Watkins will head the delegation. There'll be four additional seats for sure (maybe six, according to JAF). They can be couples or singles.

* TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF VANUATU, 29-31 July: Vanuatu, composed of the New Hebrides Islands, is located near Fiji and Samoa. It was the scene of much fighting during World War II. The celebration will coincide with the annual summit meeting of the South Pacific Forum, involving the top leaders of the Pacific. State thinks this will be an opportunity for demonstrating US interest in the region. (See attached memo.) We'll need a head of delegation/spouse and four others, preferably not couples.

MEMORANDUM FOR BRENT SCOWCROFT
AND CHARLES G. UNTERMAYER
THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: Presidential Delegation for Vanuatu's 10th
Anniversary Celebrations

The Republic of Vanuatu will celebrate its 10th anniversary of independence on July 30, 1990. The Vanuatu government has formally invited the United States to send an official delegation to the celebrations. The celebrations will be held in conjunction with the annual summit meeting of the region's premier political organization, the South Pacific Forum, in Port Vila, the capital of Vanuatu. The Pacific's top leaders can be expected to attend both the Forum and the independence celebrations.

The Department recommends that we respond favorably to the Vanuatu government's invitation by naming a Presidential Delegation, as we have done for recent Pacific anniversary celebrations in Western Samoa, Tonga, and Solomon Islands. At a time when budgetary constraints limit our ability to devote adequate resources to the area, high-level official visits are one of the few tools we have to demonstrate our concern for the region. They also help promote a favorable image of the US. Vanuatu Prime Minister Walter Lini was deeply impressed by the presence of a Presidential Delegation at the 10th anniversary celebrations in neighboring Solomon Islands in 1988.

The naming of a Presidential Delegation would accentuate a significant turnabout in our relations with Vanuatu, which only a few years ago was flirting with the Soviet Union and Libya. Relations with the US have warmed steadily since the establishment of diplomatic relations in 1986. Vanuatu has just accepted its first contingent of Peace Corps volunteers and is interested in further cooperation. The Libyans are gone, and a fishing treaty with the Soviets has lapsed.

The independence celebrations will take place July 29-31, with the main formalities to be held in Port Vila on July 30. At the request of the government of Vanuatu, we are exploring various activities in connection with the celebrations, including road repair work by Seabees, a military band, and, possibly, a US Navy ship visit for the first time since independence.

The Department looks forward to working with you to determine the composition of the delegation, which should include approximately five members. We would expect our Ambassador-designate to Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands and Vanuatu, Robert W. Farrand, who is currently awaiting Senate confirmation, to attend as well. The head of the delegation should carry a Presidential message of congratulations. There is no need for a substantive statement.

Commercial air travel in this part of the world is difficult and, at best, sporadic. Considering the stature of the delegation, the Department requests that a military aircraft be made available on a non-reimbursable basis.

Dear Mr. President:

I still have great interest in serving you, not only for personal reasons but because I am immodest enough to believe I can make a credible contribution to your Administration.

In furtherance of this interest, on 14 December 1989, I met with Chase and discussed with him my desire to become a candidate for the new position of Inspector General, Central Intelligence Agency. Subsequently, on 1 January 1990, I sent him a letter reaffirming my desire to compete for this position.

I believe I meet all the statutory prerequisites and have the experience, temperament and successful, verifiable track record to recommend me for this position. In addition, I am confident I can make a persuasive case for my candidacy to the Senate Intelligence Committee.

Mr. President, I know you are extremely busy, I intrude upon your time only because I know I can serve you very well in this position, and I would like the opportunity to do so.

Respectfully,

Dear Mr. President:

It is with much regret that I submit to you my resignation as Ambassador to Austria as of January, 1990. I do so for purely personal but compelling reasons that make it important for me to be back in the United States and in private life, at least for the time being.

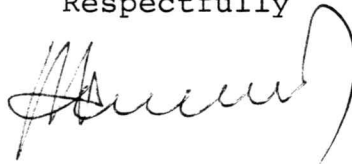

By January, it will have been two years since I assumed my post, and nearly one year since you were good enough to reappoint me. I am honored and proud to have been a part of your Administration and to have been permitted to play a role in the conduct of your foreign policy, which I greatly admire and support.

I remain deeply committed to your goals and to the success of your Presidency. If you should find at some future time that I could be useful in another assignment, circumstances permitting, I would feel privileged to serve you again.

My sincerest thanks for the confidence you and Secretary Baker have placed in me, and for the opportunity you gave me to be of service to our country.

With all best wishes,

Respectfully

Dear Henry:

It is with deep regret that I accept your resignation as Ambassador to Austria, effective on a date of your choosing in January 1990.

You have served the United States so admirably over the years that it was an early and easy decision for me to ask you to remain at your post following my Inauguration. I can now join President Reagan in saluting your loyal and effective service. You have represented the United States in Vienna with honor and distinction.

Barbara joins me in sending our warmest personal wishes to you as you return home, with confidence that you will continue to achieve great things for yourself and for our country.

Thanks for your wonderful note and for the recommendation of Andy Antippas. I've placed your good endorsement with Brent Scowcroft and Bill Bennett.

If we are to put an end to the drug scourge, we're going to need the best professionals we can muster to lead the fight and let the drug lords know that we are deadly serious. Victory is our goal, and with everyone's help, we will succeed.

Dear Mr. President:

I am proud as punch, but not the least bit surprised by your strong stand on behalf of the government of Columbia's determination to eradicate the drug cartels.

You will remember when I was Coordinator of Caribbean Affairs at State, a few of us launched Operation BAT in the Bahamas and Turks & Caicos. We would have not gotten this off the ground had it not been for your interest and support as well as Dan Murphy's.

One of our great assets was Andy Antippas—a career Foreign Service officer—who was chargé in Nassau at that time. Andy combined diplomatic ability with a strong management, strategic planning, and operational capability. His liaison with EEA, the Coast Guard, drug interdiction strike forces, and foreign governments was superb.

It occurred to me that Andy could perform an excellent action-oriented coordinating role as your personal ambassador on the Colombian and regional problem. I know Dan Murphy, Bill Middendorf, and Pete Teeley would concur. I have not discussed this with Andy, and have lost touch with him. I do know he is on active duty as a senior Foreign Service officer.

I am sending this note to Ambassador Briggs. Ted is first rate. The Foreign Service has no better. I am so pleased he is over there working for you.

With warm personal regards and respect as always,

Sincerely,

1989 OCT -4 AM 8:53

Dear Mr. President:

I believe you have received a letter from our mutual friend, Bill Hewitt, indicating his interest in being appointed Ambassador to Luxembourg. I am writing this letter to indicate my strong and enthusiastic support for his candidacy.

Bill, as you will recall, served for more than twenty-five years as chief executive of the John Deere Company. He and his wife, Tish, have been close, personal friends of Peggy's and mine for almost as long a period. For a good part of that time, Bill served as a member of the Chase's International Advisory Committee; and, in that connection, we travelled together to many parts of the world.

Following Bill's retirement from John Deere, President Reagan appointed him Ambassador to Jamaica, a post which he held with distinction for three years. I had a chance to see him in action in that post since concurrently I served at the request of President Reagan as Chairman of a U.S. Business Committee on Jamaica. From first-hand observation, I was conscious of the fact that he was well liked by President Seaga and his Government as well as by the business community of Jamaica. He was highly professional in his handling of the job.

For a number of years, Tish Hewitt's health was impaired, a fact which prevented her from being as active in Jamaica as she would have liked. I am happy to report, however, that she now has totally recovered from these problems of health and has indicated her enthusiasm for playing an active role in support of Bill, should you decide to appoint him Ambassador.

Both Bill and Tish speak fluent French and have travelled frequently and extensively throughout Europe, including Luxembourg. I am convinced that Bill would represent you and our country with dedication and skill were he given the opportunity.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Sending a Member of the President's Family to the 25th Anniversary Celebration of The Gambia's Independence.

Gambian President Dawda Jawara has written President Bush inviting him to send a representative to The Gambia on February 18 to celebrate the 25th anniversary of its independence (TAB 1). Similar invitations have also gone to the United Kingdom, and Embassy Banjul reports that a member of the British royal family is likely to attend, given The Gambia's excellent ties to its former colonial ruler.

The State Department believes sending a member of the President's family would be an excellent way to mark a warm and increasingly productive relationship. The Gambia is the site of one of NASA's prime emergency landing sites for the Space Shuttle, and NASA plans to spend some $7 million over the next three years improving the airport at Yundum to handle a possible Shuttle emergency. The Gambia's excellent human rights record and its leadership role on this issue make it a valuable vehicle for promoting the United States' own human rights views across the continent. The Gambia is also on the cutting edge of economic reform, a fact noted by President Bush when he met with President Jawara May 15, 1989, at the White House.

At that same White House meeting, President Jawara invited the President to visit The Gambia, and the President warned that he had a large family and might indeed send a member of it to Banjul. The Gambians are following up on that suggestion with the current invitation. A delegation composed of a member of the President's family, a member of Congress, and other officials as appropriate would be useful in promoting U.S. interests in The Gambia, and would be highly appreciated by President Jawara and his people.

Dear Chase,

Back from Malta, proud to have been on detail with a member of the Bush family. Bill "Buck" Bush is a classy guy. He and his wife - and Paul Hyland of Cleveland - made super salespersons for the US in Malta. The fact that the President chose to send his brother to represent him in the small country of Malta is a very big thing in a place like that.... a big boost for a new government there, trying to change direction after long years of Socialist rule.

Warm regards - and thanks!
Bruce

Dear Mr. President,

Is there a need for an outstanding lawyer with an excellent background on Poland on the coming Presidential mission to Poland?

If so, would you please consider Robert L. Heckart, a partner at Davis Polk & Wardwell.

We have very good friends at Davis Polk, and they are still hurt by Bob Fiske's withdrawal and Jim Benkard's failure to land a position they believed he would receive.

I enclose a letter from Sam Pryor as well as a memorandum from Heckart outlining his credentials vis a vis Poland. Sam is one of the really great guys, helps on all causes, and has been a very generous supporter.

It would mean a lot to me because of my close relationship with Sam and my fondness for Fiske and Jimmy Benkard if Heckart were asked to join the mission. I am sure that he will be a positive and strong contributor.

Thanks very much.

Sincerely,

DAVIS POLK & WARDWELL

Dear John

Bob Heckart is a partner who has an intimate knowledge of Polansky. He is good - represented Louis Marx on the recent acquisition of the Illinois Central - Do you know where the enclosure might be sent as the clipping indicates that the group is still in formation. I am hoping that after Fiske and Bernhard someone in the Administration might say

OK we will give one to
Darius Polk

Re: Presidential Mission to Poland

I thought some brief (and hastily prepared) information about my Polish experience might be helpful before you make any calls on my behalf regarding the above. The Firm was counsel in the roles described below, but I state it in personal form because I was the only attorney at Davis Polk involved in the series of debt restructuring transactions until 1983, when the process entered a maintenance phase and David Wells in the London office became involved.

I began working with Morgan Guaranty in April, 1981 on the Polish debt problem. A few weeks later, I became counsel to the U.S. National Coordinating Committee consisting of Bank of America, Citibank, Bankers Trust, Manufacturers Hanover, Chase, Chemical, Morgan Guaranty, Irving, First Chicago, First Wisconsin and Marine Midland.

In July, 1981, the Multi-National Task Force, consisting of representatives from major banks in each of the creditor countries and headed primarily by European banks, decided to use English law in the preparation of restructuring documents. Consequently, Keith Clark of Coward Chance was appointed English counsel for the Multi-National Task Force and I was appointed U.S. co-counsel with Keith.

I was a member of the 14-person Working Party of the Multi-National Task Force which was formed with representatives of Barclays, Swiss Bank, Dresdner, Creditanstalt, Bank of America and Citibank, Keith and one of his partners.

As a member of the Working Party, I participated in all negotiating sessions with representatives of Bank Handlowy (Poland's central bank) and the Polish Ministry of Finance in Warsaw, Vienna, London, Frankfurt, Zurich and Paris over the next two years. I travelled to Poland for such meetings on five occasions: on November 17 and November 30, 1981, August 10 and September 28, 1982 and March 18, 1983. I also participated substantively in drafting the legal documentation.

I attended various meetings with Chuck Meisner, then U.S. representative to the Paris Club on the Polish debt issue, and Norman Bailey, then Chairman of the National Security Council. I also had various negotiations with representatives of the Commodity Credit Corporation regarding their guarantees of various U.S. bank loans for commodity exports to Poland.

On February 9-10, 1984, I was a panel member at the PLI program on "The International Debt Problem and its Impact on Finance and Trade".

I hope you find the foregoing helpful. If you have any questions, please call me on extension 4312.

Thanks very much, Sam. I really appreciate your efforts on this.

Bob

Frederick (Freck) Vreeland says he "accepts with great pleasure" your offer of the ambassadorship to Burma. He is writing you a letter saying so.

To maintain the 2/3 FSO proportion, this will require converting a post currently held by a non-career ambassador to career when it opens next year. The likeliest possibilities are in Uruguay, when Malcolm Wilkey retires in March, or in Rwanda, if you should name Leonard Spearman Sr to another position. (My staff has him under consideration for some.)

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

President George Bush
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Mr. President:

The purpose of this letter is to offer my assistance in working with your Administration to achieve the goal that all of us desire -- the removal of General Noriega from power.

I know you share the frustration of all of us in the Congress over the failed coup attempt undertaken last Tuesday by elements of the Panamanian Defense Forces. However, I believe that Noriega still can be ousted from power, particularly if the Executive and Legislative branches of our government work closely and cooperatively to reach that goal.

Because I believe it is so important to look to the future, rather than debating past events, I assure you that I will maintain the personal and confidential nature of my communication with you.

As you are perhaps aware, I have been in close touch with Panamanian opposition leaders in exile here in Washington. In my opinion, I think it would be most important for consultations to be undertaken, at the highest levels, with these individuals in an effort to solicit their views regarding the current situation and what steps could be taken to increase Noriega's vulnerabilities. I think they have some very sound ideas which are worth considering as part of an overall strategy for dealing with the Noriega problem in the coming weeks. Among the ideas which I believe our government can realistically implement are the following:

Determined NOT to be
National Security Classified Marking
By SS (LP-GB) on 3/7/24

-- The Defense Department should negotiate contracts with the CNN Spanish speaking news and Univision to air their shows on U.S. Armed Forces Channels in Panama. This is a legitimate service and CNN Spanish news is considered credible to many in Latin America. CNN Spanish news devotes significant coverage to Panama.

-- With U.S. help, a radio station could be established in the former Canal Zone which would work more closely with Radio Impacto in Coasta Rica. Efforts should be coordinated with Radio Impacto to broadcast a "Panama News Hour" daily, particularly since that station is heard in almost all of Panama.

-- With U.S. financial assistance, a weekly newspaper could be printed in this country and smuggled into Panama. Roberto Eisenman and Wilfei Jiimenez could coordinate this effort, and I understand both are willing to take on this responsibility.

-- The Defense Department could work with the opposition in producing and running documentaries on "Solutions to the Panamanian Political Situation." Such a documentary would define the current problems in Panama and discuss rational ways to solve them. If our government could provide funding and air time on the Armed Forces network in Panama, this project could go forward.

According to key opposition figures in Washington, the U.S. could seriously cripple Noriega's international financial empire if we placed pressure on the governments of Great Britain, France, Switzerland, and Italy to declare certain of his representatives persona non grata. These include Guillermo Vega, the Panamanian Ambassador to Great Britain, who was responsible for bringing Amjad Awan and the Bank for Commerce and Credit International together in devising a money laundering scheme within BCCI for the General. Guillermo Wittgren, the Panamanian Ambassador to France, Ambassador Castellero, the Panamanian Representative to Switzerland, and Gabriella Maher, the Panamanian counsel in Venice, Italy, are also instrumental in managing Noriega's international illicit business activities.

It is my understanding that Venezuelan President, Carlos Andres Perez, has asked a number of Latin American countries to join in taking collective action against Noriega. In this connection, there has been concern expressed to me by these opposition figures that Panamanian officers who are now in exile are not being used properly. They are too scattered geographically and are not given the support they need to communicate with their fellow officers in Panama. Therefore, it would seem reasonable to organize all PDF personnel in exile and locate them in one location outside the U.S., preferably Venezuela. The U.S. should insure they receive the necessary logistical and financial assistance which would allow them to undertake 1) intelligence gathering on the PDF in Panama, and 2) wage an information campaign within the PDF to insure that all officers realize the degree of Noriega's international isolation.

Since Omar Torrigos' party, the PRD, is fragmenting and is clearly an eroding base of support for Noriega, it would appear to be extremely critical to integrate defectors from the PRD into this overall effort. This would go a long way to expanding the opposition base. Because of the historical relationship between the Panamanian Armed Forces and the PRD, defectors from both institutions could be very instrumental in developing additional strategies to deal with the current situation if a coordinating mechanism were created to assist in this effort.

In conclusion, I appreciate very much your consideration of my views on this matter. I would like to be as helpful as I can in working with your Administration to solve this exceedingly difficult problem.

Respectfully,

John F. Kerry

My dear Mr. President,

As you will recall, I spent the better part of 1970 to 1973, during the Somoza regime, in our Embassy in Managua, as Director of the United States A.I.D. Mission to Nicaragua, before being named Director of the United States A.I.D. Mission to the Dominican Republic by then-Secretary of State Bill Rogers and then-Administrator of the Agency for International Development Dr. Mark Hannah - only to have to resign to bring my dear, dying wife back home for some TLC from family and friends and proper medical attention.

It recently occurred to me that, if you decide to send a team of observers to the Nicaraguan elections in February, perhaps I should be a member of that delegation. I am still familiar with the geography, the people, the history, the economy, the Sandinistas and our relations with them from before Jimmy Carter's days until now. Then, in March of this year, I was a member of your delegation to observe the Salvadoran presidential elections.

So, Mr. President, unless you disagree, for some reason, that my past experience would be of significant benefit to our country in this upcoming electoral process, please pass this letter on to the "powers-that-be", with your stamp of approval on it; and I should be hearing from them at the appropriate time. I would be delighted to serve.

By the way, I just spoke to Jim Rombeau and he tells me that Hector Salazar and he may be seeing you soon - perhaps for some doubles action on the White House courts; maybe with David Bates, Dorrance Smith and/or Jimmy Bayless. Good luck!

Sincere best regards to the First Lady and your good self.

Cordially yours,

Pelly

MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

7 October 1989

From: Chase Untermeyer C.U.

Subj: Ambassadorships

With the selection of an FSO for Luxembourg, two-thirds of all ambassadorships (both bilateral and multilateral) will be held by career officers, the goal you and JAB set at the start of this year.

Getting to 70%, the revised target, is harder but not impossible to reach before 1992, when the current big class of non-career ambassadors comes open again. At that time you'll be able to run the percentage of FSO's even higher than 70% if you desire. (As a practical matter, I suspect that non-career ambassadors in the Class of '89 -- Mel Sembler, Joe Zappala, Della Newman, etc. -- will not be replaced until after the 1992 election, given that they will have taken their posts so late this year.)

This will require converting (as they come open) all five posts now held by non-career ambassadors appointed by President Reagan and retained by you: Austria, Panama, Paraguay, Rwanda, and Uruguay. It will also mean that you will not be able to name another non-careerist to an ambassadorship. Your decision to put Freck Vreeland in Burma, for example, will be at least a temporary step away from the current two-thirds mark.

Because you shouldn't tie your own hands over a goal you have set for yourself, I recommend:

-- That we highlight the attainment of the two-thirds goal, perhaps in the press release that announces the selection of Ambassador Rowell for Luxembourg.

-- That we say you want to increase the percentage of FSO's above this as time passes, not setting any further target other than "more". In this way, you will be able to name people like Freck as you desire while still making progress toward your goal.
