SUBJECT:

Billington telcon

As requested, I returned Jim Billington's telephone call to General Scowcroft. Billington urgently wants the President to mention to the Pope our (i.e., the Library of Congress's) interest in receiving a Vatican exhibit chronicling the Church's role in Columbus's voyages of discovery. He will send me some background (which he also sent to Secretary Baker) explaining the importance of the project and its background. I will relay the gist of Billington's request as appropriate.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Gates handled on behalf of Scowcroft - extended apologies and asked if a Senior Staff member could chat with Dr. Khalid.
He agreed - Bill Burnes will handle and do a MFR.

Drane - I ~~asked~~ told Dr. Khalid that General Scowcroft would be tied up w/ Pres. all morning but that he asked Mr. Gates to get back to him.

January 23, 1989

General Scowcroft:

Patty Presock called from The President's Office --

Before transferring Dr. Mansour Khalid to your office, she wanted you to know that Dr. Khalid is (1) an acquaintance of The President's; (2) the former Ambassador to the UN; and (3) the former Foreign Minister to Sudan. The President did not wish to take his call, however, Patty thought that perhaps given the above background, you or someone from the NSC Staff should talk with him.

Dr. Khalid said that he is staying at the Watergate Hotel and can be reached there: 965-2300 Room 901.

How do you wish to handle?

General:

Mack Mattingly (former Republican Senator - Georgia) called --

I checked with Don Snider -- Mattingly is the Director of the support side of NATO (Assistant Secretary General for Defense Support) -- part of the political structure of NATO who handles support of NATO operations. Working on how we are supporting the Alliance with conventional improvements and arms cooperation and production. Probably wants to share some of his ideas.

He wrote to the President right after the Inauguration -- a set of notes saying here are things that you should look at; some free advice.

☒ I will return his call

☒ Refer to Kanter/Defense Group, asking them to return on my behalf
