Denis:

The Schmidt proposal has already gone forward. Accordingly, against the contingency that it will be approved, you may wish to separate out Cadieux from this package and send forward a proposal on him alone. Alternatively, or at least as a hedge, you may wish to hold on to this package for use in the event that the Schmidt package is disapproved.

Now that matters are thoroughly confused, let me know if I can be of further assistance.

MEMORANDUM FOR SECRETARY KISSINGER

FROM: A. Denis Clift

SUBJECT: Schedule Proposal for Ambassador Cadieux and Ambassador Schmidt

The Canadian Embassy has asked if it would be possible for Ambassador Cadieux to present the President with a set of coins struck in honor of the 1976 Montreal Summer Olympics (State Memorandum at Tab B).

As you know, the former U.S. Ambassador to Canada, Adolph W. Schmidt resigned at the end of January. He has written the President offering to be of future service and State has twice expressed the hope that the President will be able to receive Ambassador Schmidt for a brief farewell call.

The President might wish to receive both Cadieux and Schmidt for a brief office call. This would permit him to accept the coins -- demonstrating his interest in the forthcoming Olympic Games; and it would permit him to express his appreciation to Ambassador Schmidt. If you agree, the schedule proposal for your signature at Tab A would so recommend to the President.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the schedule proposal at Tab A.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

SCHEDULE PROPOSAL

DATE:

FROM: Henry A. Kissinger

VIA: David N. Parker

MEETING: Canadian Ambassador Cadieux and former U. S. Ambassador to Canada Schmidt

DATE: At the President's convenience, within the next few weeks.

PURPOSE: To receive from Cadieux a special set of coins struck in honor of Canada's hosting of the 1976 Olympic Games, and to take the same occasion to express your appreciation to Ambassador Schmidt for his service in Ottawa.

FORMAT: Oval Office, 15 minutes.

SPEECH MATERIAL: Talking points will be provided.

PRESS COVERAGE: To be announced; press photo opportunity.

STAFF: Henry A. Kissinger

RECOMMEND: Henry A. Kissinger

BACKGROUND: The Olympic Committee has awarded the 1976 Summer Olympics to Canada, and they are to be held in Montreal. The Canadian Government has authorized a special issue of coins and stamps as part of the fund-raising drive for the Olympics. The Canadian Embassy has inquired as to the possibility of Ambassador Cadieux's presenting you with a set of the coins. Were you to receive Ambassador Cadieux, the Canadians could be expected to react quite positively to this gesture, not only as an indication of the importance you attach to US-Canadian relations, but also as an indication of your support for the Olympic Games.

At the same time, your former Ambassador to Ottawa, Adolph W. Schmidt tendered his resignation on January 29, 1974 (letter at Tab A). He has expressed the hope that it will be possible for you to receive him for a farewell call. It would seem quite appropriate to have Ambassador Schmidt present for the coin presentation by Ambassador Cadieux, and you could take the occasion to thank Ambassador Schmidt for his service and to wish him well for the future.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Washington, D.C. 20520

January 29, 1974

Dear Mr. President:

In further reference to my letter of October 15, 1973 to the Secretary of State, I am very pleased that my replacement was announced on January 8, 1974 and that the Canadian reaction to the appointment of William Porter as Ambassador to Canada has been universally favorable.

Consequently, as I depart Ottawa today, I officially tender my resignation as Ambassador of the United States to Canada.

I am grateful for the privilege and opportunity of having served as Ambassador in Ottawa during these past four and a half years. They have been active and challenging and on occasion even exciting, as during the Quebec crisis of October 1970, the August 15, 1971 New Economic Policy, your State Visit in April 1972, and the energy crisis of 1973.

I send you my very best wishes for the remaining years of your Presidency. If I can be of further service to you at any time, particularly in the area of Atlantic affairs, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "A. W. Schmidt".

MEMORANDUM FOR MAJOR GENERAL BRENT SCOWCROFT
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Canadian Request for a Ceremonial
Presentation

The Canadian Government has struck a special set of coins commemorating Canada's hosting of the 1976 Olympic Games. As part of its official publicity for the Games, Canada is making ceremonial presentations of these coin sets to heads of state. The Canadian Embassy has inquired as to the possibility of Ambassador Cadieux making such a presentation to the President.

If the President's program should permit his receiving Ambassador Cadieux for this purpose, the Department would appreciate being informed of dates and times suitable for the presentation.

Should the President's program not permit, the Department of State would appreciate being informed if the Vice President could perform this ceremonial function on behalf of the President and, if so, suitable times and dates for its scheduling.

We believe that it would be desirable to accede to the Canadian Embassy's request in this matter.

MEMORANDUM FOR SECRETARY KISSINGER

FROM: A. Denis Clift ADC

SUBJECT: US-Canadian Relations -- Timing for Trudeau Visit to Washington Obé

The purpose of this memorandum is to seek your guidance on the preferred timing for the first meeting between President Ford and Prime Minister Trudeau in Washington. Bearing in mind the growing number of commitments on the President's and Prime Minister's schedules for the balance of 1974, I am raising this to ensure that a US-Canadian meeting is not precluded by scheduling complications if the President wishes to have such a meeting before the end of the year.

At present, a broad-ranging study of US-Canadian relations is being conducted in response to NSSM 206/CIEPSM 36, and the NSSM response should be available for consideration at the White House by the third week in September. This timing would indicate that it should be possible for you to complete an interdepartmental policy-level review of the current, important US-Canadian issues by the end of October -- and, if desired, that head-to-head talks could be scheduled for November or December.

The Prime Minister and the President have both noted they look forward to early discussions in their recent exchange of messages. Ivan Head has confirmed to General Scowcroft that the Prime Minister would be pleased to come to Washington before the end of the year. However, on August 24, the Ottawa Citizen quoted a spokesman in the Prime Minister's office as saying that Trudeau is not planning a meeting with the President in the foreseeable future, but that he may visit Washington within the next year. As reported in the telegram at Tab A, Trudeau is now making plans for a two-stage visit to Western Europe this coming Fall and Winter.

In my opinion, it would be in the best interests of US-Canadian bilateral relations if the President and the Prime Minister were to schedule a one-day working visit before the end of the year to set a positive tone in our political relations and to review the defense, trade/economic, energy and resources issues of importance to both countries.

DECISION HAS BEEN MADE TO BEGIN VISIT IN PARIS FOLLOWED BY VISIT TO BRUSSELS, PRIMARILY FOR TALKS WITH THE EEC AND NAC BUT WITH EMPHASIS ON FORMER. COUNTRIES COULD BE ADDED TO FIRST STAGE WITH SECOND STAGE OPEN. HOWEVER, VISIT TO EEC IN SECOND STAGE IS NOT EXCLUDED--INDEED THERE WAS SUGGESTION OF HOPE THAT PRIME MINISTER'S INITIAL TALKS IN FALL MIGHT PRODUCE POSITIVE REASONS FOR RETURNING IN WINTER.

3. PURPOSE OF VISIT NOT YET DEFINED IN SPECIFIC TERMS BEYOND ASSUMPTION THAT CANADA'S "IMPORTANT" BILATERAL RELATIONS WITH WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES (ESPECIALLY WITH THE MEMBERS OF THE EUROPE COMMON MARKET) WOULD BENEFIT FROM A VISIT BY THE PRIME MINISTER.

4. BEYOND THAT IS FACT THAT SINCE BECOMING PRIME MINISTER IN 1968 TRUDEAU HAS NOT OFFICIALLY VISITED WESTERN EUROPE. HE HAS BEEN TO LONDON IN COMMONWEALTH CONTEXT, TO MOSCOW, PEKING AND TOKYO BUT NOT--AS HIS CRITICS REPEATEDLY POINT OUT--TO ANY OF THE CONTINENTAL CAPITALS. SOONER OR LATER, TRUDEAU WOULD OBVIOUSLY VISIT THIS PART OF WORLD. THE CHOICE OF PARIS AS THE FIRST CAPITAL TO BE VISITED IS DELIBERATE AND SHOULD FORMALLY SIGNIFY A THAW IN CANADIAN-FRENCH RELATIONS--CHILLED SINCE CHARLES DE GAULLE'S VISIT TO MONTREAL IN 1967. BUT THE REAL TARGET HAS TO BE THE EEC WHERE CANADA VERY MUCH WANTS TO INSTITUTIONALIZE ITS COMMERCIAL RELATIONSHIP WITH THE COMMUNITY. TO DATE, CANADA HAS BEEN DISAPPOINTED IN THE LACK OF RESPONSE BY THE EEC TO ITS OVERTURES. THE PRIME MINISTER MAY BE INTENDING NOW TO TRY HIS HAND AT ENERGIZING THESE NEGOTIATIONS.

MEMORANDUM FOR LIEUTENANT GENERAL BRENT SCOWCROFT
THE WHITE HOUSESubject: Proposed Date of Official Visit to Washington of Prime Minister Trudeau
of Canada

In their bilateral meeting in New York earlier this week, Secretary Kissinger and Canadian Foreign Minister MacEachen agreed to look into the possibility of a short official visit by Prime Minister Trudeau to Washington in mid-November. More specifically, the Department understands that an afternoon and evening during the period November 10-14 is now under active consideration at the White House.

Canadian Ambassador Cadieux informed us today that Prime Minister Trudeau's other commitments will not permit a visit to Washington during that period. The Prime Minister's office has suggested instead the possibility of a visit to Washington during the first week of December. December 4 apparently would be most convenient for the Prime Minister.

Ambassador Cadieux would welcome an early indication as to whether a date during this period in December might be possible for the President.

MEETING WITH CANADIAN AMBASSADOR
MARCEL CADIEUX

Tuesday, October 15, 1974
12:05 p.m. (five minutes)
The Oval Office

From: Henry A. Kissinger for

I. PURPOSE

To receive from Ambassador Cadieux (cahDYUH -- biographic sketch at Tab A) a special set of coins struck in honor of Canada's hosting of the 1976 Olympic Games.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS & PRESS ARRANGEMENTS

A. Background: The Olympic Committee has awarded the 1976 Summer Olympics to Canada, and the games are to be held in Montreal. The Canadian Government has authorized a special issue of coins and stamps as part of the fund-raising drive for the Olympics.

As a gesture of US-Canadian friendship, and to highlight the Olympics fund-raising drive, the Government of Canada is most eager to present you personally with a set of the coins.

At the request of the Canadians, US agencies including the FBI, INS and State are working closely with the Royal Mounted Police on security arrangements for the Olympics -- with the objective of averting the terrorist acts of the 1972 Munich Olympics.

The only other issue Ambassador Cadieux may raise during this brief meeting is that of Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau's visit to Washington later this year. Your meeting with the Canadian Prime Minister is now tentatively scheduled for December 4, 1974.

- B. Participants: Ambassador Cadieux and Brent Scowcroft
- C. Press Arrangements: The meeting will be announced, and there will be a press photo session.

III. TALKING POINTS

1. I greatly appreciate receiving this handsome set of coins relating as it does to the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal.
2. The Olympic Games symbolize the best in international sports competition. The athletes who participate are themselves diplomats; they increase contacts and strengthen the bonds of friendship among peoples throughout the world.
3. I am sure that many Americans will be travelling to Montreal for the Olympic Games in 1976 adding further to the very close ties of friendship between the United States and Canada.
4. As 1976 will be our Bicentennial Year, it is my hope that many Canadians will have the opportunity to visit to this country and to take part in our celebration.
5. I know the very hard work that goes into the preparation for the Olympic games -- not only by the athletes but also by those organizing the event. To all who are involved, I extend my very best wishes for a very successful Montreal Olympics.
