Mrs. Hannah Mahoney,

New York City.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of February 1, 1933, relative to your desire to make a pilgrimage to the grave of your brother, the late Private John J. Crowley, at the expense of the Government.

The Act of Congress of March 2, 1929, as amended May 15, 1930, authorizes pilgrimages for only the mothers and widows of deceased members of the American forces who were lost or buried at sea or whose remains are interred in Europe. The only provision of law under which any woman other than a mother or widow can be considered for the privilege of making the trip is contained in Section 4 (a) which reads in part "or any woman who stood in loco parentis to the deceased member of the military or naval forces for a period of not less than five years at any time prior to the soldier, sailor, or marine becoming eighteen years of age."

In view of the fact that your brother was sixteen years of age at the time he came to live with you, it is evident that you did not stand in loco parentis to him within the meaning of the law. It is therefore regretted to advise that you are not eligible to make a pilgrimage to his grave as the guest of the Government.

For The Quartermaster General,

Very truly yours,

CHAS. W. DIETZ,
Captain, Q. M. Corps,
Assistant.

NOTE.—INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE DISPOSITION OF REMAINS will be issued by this office upon the properly executed authority of the legal next of kin in each case. The widow is the first person having disposition of the remains of her husband. Should there be no widow or children, the father and, in turn (upon his decease), the mother, is the proper authority. The brothers, in order of seniority, and then the sisters in order of seniority, if there are no brothers, rank next in authority to decide. Under an opinion rendered by the Judge Advocate General of the Army, if a widow has remarried she forfeits her right, and the next of kin as given above will make decision.

December 9, 1921.

Mrs. Catherine Crowley,
Glounagoppull, Kilmunin,

Ireland.

Dear Madam:

On June 16th and October 5th, 1921, we wrote you requesting your desires as to the final disposition of the remains of your son, Private John J. Crowley, #1899645, explaining in both instances that his remains were buried in a TEMPORARY American Cemetery in France.

On October 15th, 1921, you replied that you "desired said remains of your son be not disturbed further".

On October 17th, we replied, explaining at length that if your request were granted, your son's grave would become isolated and uncared for and that certain French legal requirements would have to be complied with before the U.S. Government could leave the body in Temporary Cemetery #557.

In view of the fact that all remains of deceased American soldiers will have to be removed from TEMPORARY American cemeteries, and for the further reason that you have not replied to our letter of October 17th, you are advised that the remains of your son, together with his compatriots buried in said TEMPORARY cemetery will be removed therefrom and buried in a PERMANENT cemetery in France.

Very truly,

C. L. Sampson,
