Give any and all information which it is thought might be of use in identifying the body, other than that tabulated under Item No 6.

6. Give all information as to body description and dental chart as nearly correctly as the condition of the body will allow. Items (e) and (f) under the body description are very important and should be very complete. The dental chart is also very important and should be filled in with great care. There are 32 teeth to be accounted for, as shown by the numbers on the chart. Beginning at the middle line in both upper and lower jaws, the teeth are arranged symmetrically on either side and classed as incisors (cutting teeth), cuspids or canines (tearing teeth), bicuspids (chewing teeth), and molars (principal chewing teeth). An examination should be made and findings charted to cover the following basic conditions: Lost teeth, crowned teeth, bridge work, fillings, caries (cavities of decay), dentures (plates), and any deformity of jaws found.

MISSING TEETH

All teeth missing through previous extraction (not those fractured or displaced by recent wounds) should be scratched out, thus:

CROWNED TEETH

Block in solid the crown of tooth (label gold, porcelain, or gold and porcelain), thus:

BRIDGE WORK

Block in solid the crown of tooth (label gold bridge, gold and porcelain bridge) thus:

FILLINGS

Draw filling on tooth accurately as possible (block in and label gold, silver, cement), thus:

CARIES (CAVITIES)

Outline location and size of cavity, shade in thus:

DENTURES (PLATES)

Draw diagram of relative size and shape of plate block in teeth attached and indicate retaining clasps on natural teeth with the word "clasp"

7. Show name of person supervising the disinterment and the name and title of the person approving same.

8. Show name of person supervising the reburial and the name and title of the person approving same.

Dear Sir.

I received your letter recently in reference to Private Luigi Cinzi, Co "A" 23rd Infantry U.S. number 7, 883, 154 (deceased)

This man although not related to me has been in my home for one year previous to being sworn into service.

Now, I received your application

er I should file same out. The reason is that I don't know if he has made me his nearest friend, as his relatives and parents are abroad, if it is not too much trouble to you, won't you send me a
