AWARDS CRITERIA

MAIN AWARDS

VOTED ON BY ALL MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Entertainer of the Year

[Award to Artist]

The factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, success at radio, consumption, success of music videos, vocal performances, live concert ticket sales, artistic merit, appearances on television, appearances in films, songwriting, success in digital media, and contributions to the country music industry. The nominees shall be determined by a nomination ballot(s) and are subject to the approval of the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership.

Album of the Year

[Award to Primary Artist(s)/Producer(s)/Record Company]

An album is defined as a unified, released body of work with a minimum of either seven (7) full-length musical works and/or thirty (30) minutes in length. The nominees shall be determined by a nomination ballot(s) and are subject to the approval of the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership.

An album is considered released on the first available date that the material can be possessed by a consumer via a purchase in its entirety and/or streamed legally in its entirety by a royalty-generating service. If the album was released during the two (2) prior eligibility periods but achieved its highest charting position on the Billboard Top Country Albums Chart during the eligibility period, it is eligible unless it has appeared on a final ACM ballot in this category.

To be eligible, a minimum of 75% of the standard edition of the album must contain recordings that have not been previously released by the artist on a prior album. "Best Of," "Greatest Hits," and rerecordings of previously released albums are ineligible.

Only the standard edition of an album may be submitted for eligibility, as determined by the record company. Once an album is nominated in the final round, it may not be nominated in alternate configurations for future voting.

Single of the Year

[Award to Artist(s)/Producer(s)/Record Company]

Any single released and achieving a Top 20 charted position on Billboard's Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts during the eligibility period is eligible. If the single was released prior to the eligibility period but achieved its highest Top 20 charted position during the eligibility period, it is eligible unless it has appeared on a final ACM ballot in this category. The nominees shall be determined by a nomination ballot(s) and are subject to the approval of the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership.

Song of the Year

[Award to Songwriter(s)/Publisher(s)/ Artist(s)]

The factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, success at radio, consumption, success in digital media and impact of the song on consumers and the country music industry with emphasis on the creative integrity of the song. A Professional Panel of at least twelve (12) and no more than twenty (20) members in the Artist/Musician/Producer/Engineer, Songwriter, Music Publisher/PRO and Record Company categories, whose members are approved by the ACM officers, will submit a final list of at least ten (10) songs to ACM members in the Songwriter, Music Publisher/PRO, and Artist/Musician/Producer/Engineer categories to select the final five (5) nominees to be placed on the final ballot, once approved by the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership.

Any song released and achieving a Top 50 charted position on Billboard's Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts during the eligibility period is eligible. If the song was released prior to the eligibility period but achieved its highest charted position during the eligibility period, it is eligible, unless it has appeared on a final ACM ballot in this category.

Songwriter Of The Year

[Award to Songwriter]

This award is presented to an individual known predominately as a songwriter and does not serve as the primary artist on any songs in the top 20 Billboard’s Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts during the eligibility period. Nominees will be selected by a Professional Panel of judges whose members are approved by the ACM officers composed of songwriters, publishers, producers, and performing rights organization (PRO) representatives. The Panel will submit five (5) nominees, which will be placed on the final ballot once approved by the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of ACM members classified in the following categories: Artist/Musician/Producer/Engineer, Songwriter, Music Publisher/PRO and Record Company.

The factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, a commercially released song crediting the songwriter that achieved its highest position in the Top 50 on Billboard’s Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts during the eligibility period. If the single was released prior to the eligibility period but achieved its highest charted position during the current eligibility period, it is eligible, unless it appeared on a final ACM ballot.

Artist-Songwriter Of The Year

[Award to Songwriter]

This award is presented to an individual known both as an artist and a songwriter who was the predominate recording artist on at least one song that charted in the top 20 on Billboard’s Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts during the eligibility period. Nominees will be selected by a Professional Panel of judges whose members are approved by the ACM officers composed of songwriters, publishers, producers, and performing rights organization (PRO) representatives. The Panel will submit five (5) nominees, which will be placed on the final ballot once approved by the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of ACM members classified in the following categories: Artist/Musician/Producer/Engineer, Songwriter, Music Publisher/PRO and Record Company.

The factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, a commercially released song crediting the songwriter that achieved its highest position in the Top 50 on Billboard’s Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts during the eligibility period. If the single was released prior to the eligibility period but achieved its highest charted position during the current eligibility period, it is eligible, unless it appeared on a final ACM ballot.

Music Event of the Year*

[Award to Artist(s)/Producer(s)/Record Company]

Any music event released and achieving a Top 50 charted position in Billboard’s Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts during the eligibility period is eligible. If the music event single was released prior to the eligibility period but achieved its highest Top 50 charted position during the eligibility period, it is eligible unless it has appeared on a final ACM ballot in this category. To be eligible, the music event must be a collaboration between two or more artists who do not normally perform together and are all credited on the album track listing. The nominees shall be determined by a nomination ballot(s) and are subject to the approval of the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership.

*In the event that the Board determines that there are not enough nominees in this category in any particular year, this category may not be awarded.

Female Artist of the Year

[Award to Artist]

Male Artist of the Year

[Award to Artist]

Duo of the Year*

[Award to Artist]

Group of the Year*

[Award to Artist]

The factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, success at radio, consumption, success in digital media, live concert ticket sales and vocal performances.

The nominees shall be determined by a nomination ballot(s) and are subject to the approval of the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership. In the event that the Board determines that there are not enough nominees in this category in any particular year, Duo Of The Year may be merged with Group Of The Year by the Board, and shall be called Duo/Group Of The Year.*

New Female Artist of the Year

New Male Artist of the Year

[Award to Artist]

New Duo or Group of the Year

Presented to an individual artist, group or duo who gains initial fame or significantly greater recognition during the promotion of a debut or sophomore album within the eligibility period.

The artist must have released a single that reached the Top 50 on Billboard's Hot Country Songs or the Mediabase Country charts. Any albums self-released through an independent label the artist owns and operates may not be counted as a debut or sophomore album, unless it produces a Top 50 single reported by Billboard's Hot Country Songs or Mediabase Country charts. The nominees shall be determined by a nomination ballot(s) and are subject to the approval of the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership.

Any artist who served or is currently serving as a lead member of a duo or group is not eligible for individual category recognition. Additionally, any artist who has gained initial fame as a solo artist or as part of a duo or group in another genre is not eligible in these categories.

An artist may be a nominee two times in a three-year period. Once an artist releases the lead single from a third studio album, they will no longer be eligible in this category. If an artist is a winner in the New Female Artist /New Male Artist/New Duo or Group (or any respective previously named) category their first year on a ballot, they will not be eligible in any New Artist categories again. Any artist who has previously won the award for Entertainer, Female Artist, Male Artist, Duo or Group of the Year (or any respective previously named category) is ineligible for a New Artist nomination.

Visual Media of the Year

[Award to Producer(s)/Director(s)/ Artist(s)]

This award is presented to the producer, director and artist for an outstanding piece of visual media released by the artist during the eligibility period, supporting a song or single. Emphasis shall be placed on creativity, production, visual appeal and impact on consumers and the country music industry across one or more platforms. Other factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, success of any recording for which the content was made at radio, and success of consumption on any digital platform where the content is released. The content piece must contain 51% of the full original master. Only one submission per song will be allowed. The nominees shall be determined by a nomination ballot(s) and are subject to the approval of the Board. The winner shall be determined by a vote of the ACM professional membership. If the content piece was released prior to the previous eligibility period, but achieved its biggest impact during the current eligibility period, it is eligible unless it has appeared on a final ACM ballot in this category.

A minimum of three eligible submissions are required to award the category. In the instance there are not three eligible submissions within a category, a professional panel may vote to allow additional considerations to meet the required minimum.

SECOND ROUND BALLOT

In the second round, up to two (2) votes may be cast in each category for the category to be counted. The five (5) submissions receiving the most votes in each category will be placed on the final ballot, except for Entertainer of the Year where the top seven (7) submission receiving the most votes will be included. If there are less than five (5) eligible submissions in any given category, the Board may elect to allow the category to proceed to the final round with at least three (3) nominees.

FINAL ROUND BALLOT

In the final round, only one (1) vote will be cast in each category. The nominee receiving the most votes in each category will be deemed the winner. In the case of a tie, all winners will receive an award.

SPECIAL AWARDS VOTING - A Professional Panel whose members are approved by the ACM officers will submit candidates to be approved by the Board as recipients in the Special Awards categories. Awards to be given out at annual Honors event.

RADIO AWARDS VOTING – A Professional Panel whose members are approved by the ACM officers shall evaluate submissions from the current eligibility period based on the station’s or personality’s body of work, as represented in an aircheck (maximum length of 5 minutes), and an essay (maximum length of 500 words) defining the station’s or personality’s unique brand, demonstrating impact on audience and exemplifying artist discovery. Judges shall consider daypart market share/in-market rank. The prior year Winner is ineligible for a consecutive nomination in this category. Radio awards to be given out (1) off-camera in a presentation one day prior to the main show or (2) depending on timing, during the telecast in some format.

AWARDS & VOTING COMMITTEE – The Awards & Voting Committee meets annually before voting begins to review criteria, discuss updates and ensure information is current with the awards and voting processes. Any changes approved by the committee are presented to the ACM Board for ratification.

TELECAST AWARDS – The following five awards categories will always be televised: Entertainer of the Year, Album of the Year, Song of the Year, Female Artist of the Year & Male Artist of the Year. The TV committee will decide annually if any of the following remaining awards will be televised: Duo of the Year, Group of the Year, Single of the Year, Video of the Year & Music Event of the Year. The following categories will always be visible on the Awards show: New Male Artist of the Year, New Female Artist of the Year & New Duo or Group of the Year.

OFF CAMERA AWARDS - Off-camera awards to be given out prior to the telecast; time/location dependent upon winners’ availability. Awards should be referenced during main telecast when applicable.

All nominees for all awards to be in awards show program book (this decision was made since the program book serves as our “yearbook” and is our main historical record).

ACM AWARD STATUETTE POLICY

- ACM Award Statuettes may not be purchased under any circumstances except for replacement of either damaged or stolen statuettes. In the case of a damaged statuette, the damaged statuette must be returned to the Academy along with payment for the replacement statuette. In the case of a stolen statuette, written notification of a request to replace a statuette must be submitted to VP, Awards & Membership along with a formal police report indicating theft of the statuette. Cost for the replacement statuette is $500.00.
- ACM Award statuettes for all awards are silver except for Special Awards. Special Awards are gold.
- All statuettes are shipped out within six weeks of the awards show.
- All winners and Special Award recipients are bound by the following language regarding the ACM Award statuette: The ACM Award statuette is the property of the Academy of Country Music and may not be transferred, sold or used in any manner, without the express written consent of the Academy of Country Music, it being understood that possession of the ACM Award statuette is intended solely for the private use and benefit of the recipient and the recipient's heirs.

ACM AWARD STATUETTE POLICY - CERTIFICATES & COMMEMORATIVES

- Certificates [are provided to][may be purchased by] ACM Award winners in recognition and appreciation of those individuals who materially contributed to the ACM Award-winning achievement.
- Commemorative ACM Award statuettes may be ordered on behalf of a record label, publisher, agency or management principally involved with the ACM Award-winning achievement. This does not apply to artist only winner categories. Commemorative ACM Awards cannot be ordered for individuals. The intent of issuing Commemorative ACM Awards is to give the record labels, publishers, agencies and managers the opportunity to display, in a corporate public space, the ACM Awards for achievements for which their artists are recognized. All Commemorative ACM Award orders are subject to the approval of the Awards Committee.

THIRD-PARTY AUDITOR POLICY

The Academy shall engage a third-party auditor, selected by the Executive Committee and ratified by the ACM Board, to review and report the results of all voting periods for the ACM Awards, based on a mutually agreed upon set of procedures. The responsibilities of the third-party auditor shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Obtain a password-protected database file from online voting vendor with final results and other voting metrics.
- Perform mathematical computations to determine accuracy of all voting information.
- Inspect the database file to identify potential voting anomalies.
- Prepare and present a list of results to the VP, Awards & Membership pursuant to the voting round criteria. Any potential voting anomaly identified as suspect, will be presented to the chairman of the Board and the Parliamentarian. Based on instructions from these individuals, who are responsible for determining whether a vote should be disqualified, they shall exclude those votes that they have disqualified from the count of the database votes and perform mathematical computations to tabulate the totals of the votes by nominee by category.

In order to maintain the integrity of the ACM Awards process, ACM Board members and administration shall have no access to specific voting metrics or email delivery data. Any inquiries about such metrics, shall be made to the VP, Awards & Membership who will then engage third party auditor. As a matter of policy, third party auditor shall not disclose specific information about any voting metrics or email delivery metadata.

VOTE SOLICITATION POLICY

ACM award nominees and their affiliates are prohibited from soliciting votes directly from Academy members through mail (physical and email), or any other similar direct solicitation. The Academy will allow trade ads. Physical marketing mailers that do not mention voting, voting categories or use the Academy of Country Music corporate or awards logo are also allowed.
