

How do I become a Million Dollar Bull Team Challenge (MDBTC) Stock Contractor?

The bulls of the MDBTC are entered by 54 MDBTC Team owners. In order to compete at MDBTC events, a Team must be purchased from an existing Team owner or there must be a partnership and/or lease.

How much does a MDBTC Team cost?

The value of the BTC Teams is set by Team ownership as sales of Teams are negotiated between current and new Team ownership. In 2016, the BTC league expanded from 48 to 60. The additional 12 Teams were sold at a value of $50,000.

Are there any other fees?

Once a Team is purchased, the only fees issued by the MDBTC to Team ownership are 6 entry fees ($5,000/event) and an Annual Sustaining Fee of $2,500. Each participating MDBTC Team must purchase a PBR TPD/Velocity Membership Fee of $300.

How many events do I go to, and do I pick?

Prior to the new season, each Bull Team Owner is sent a “preference list” of events. Bull Team Owners rank their preferred events for the season. MDBTC management makes every attempt to accommodate preferences, as much as possible, but the final schedule is set to assure an adequate # of teams are present at each event.

Can I enter any of my bulls?

Yes, entries are open to all bulls with no age requirements.

How to do I earn points?
