

CORPORATE VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

THE CYNTHIA WOODS MITCHELL
PAVILION
SPONSORED BY HUNTSMAN

OUTREACH PROGRAM VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Volunteers at The Pavilion play an integral part in achieving the venue's mission to enrich, educate, and entertain children and adults through inspiring performing arts programs and performances.

The Pavilion's Outreach Programs At-A-Glance:

BSA Scout Day at The Pavilion June

Girls Scout Day at The Pavilion June

Hats Off to Reading September

Fine Arts Education Day (Spring ISD) October

Fine Arts Education Day (Conroe ISD) October

Children's Festival Weekend November

Children's Festival Weekend November

School Days at The Pavilion November

School Days at The Pavilion November

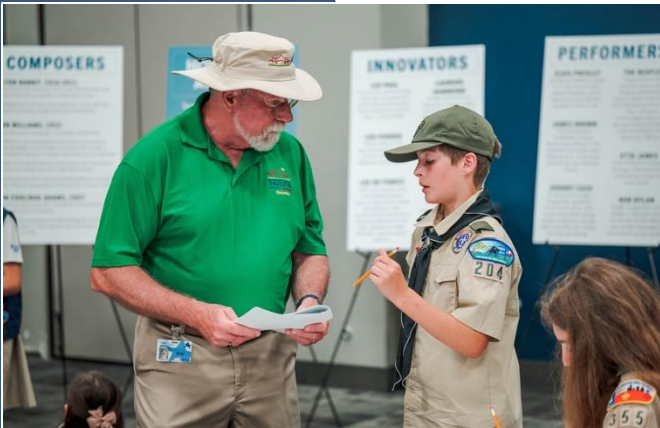

Instrument Petting Zoo Throughout the Year

Additional Events and Opportunities Throughout the Year

BSA SCOUT DAY AT THE PAVILION

June

ABOUT THE PROGRAM Scout Day at The Pavilion is designed to provide an opportunity for scouts to earn their Music Merit Badge – or equivalent arts badge – through attending a live concert and participating in FREE, fun and interactive activities that satisfy badge requirements.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES Volunteers are needed in a variety of areas to help facilitate the Scout Day program. Opportunities include assisting Scouts with making a musical instrument, helping Scouts learn about famous composers and performers, directing guests around the room to the various stations and more.

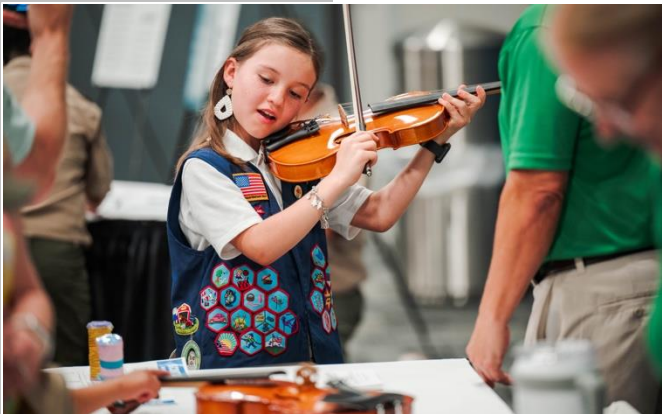

In 2024: Over 180 Scouts from several different organizations received an arts related badge

The Pavilion welcomes and provides badge fulfillment activities for all different levels of BSA, Girl Scouts and American Heritage Girls

GIRL SCOUT DAY AT THE PAVILION

June

ABOUT THE PROGRAM Scout Day at The Pavilion has consistently grown over the years and this season The Pavilion will be offering a dedicated event for Girl Scouts and American Heritage Girls to earn their music and equivalent arts badges.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES Volunteers are needed in a variety of areas to help facilitate the Scout Day program. Opportunities include assisting Scouts with making a musical instrument, helping Scouts learn about famous composers and performers, directing guests around the room to the various stations and more.

In 2024: Over 180 Scouts from several different organizations received an arts related badge

The Pavilion welcomes and provides badge fulfillment activities for all different levels of BSA, Girl Scouts and American Heritage Girls

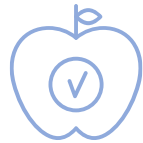

HATS OFF TO READING

September

ABOUT THE PROGRAM Hats Off to Reading proves how fun reading can be – kids get the chance to engage with fun, literacy-based activities like visiting with storybook characters or crafting their own personalized bookmark and even get to go home with a free book of their choice. The goal is for students to latch on to reading and stick with it for the rest of their lives. In partnership with Conroe ISD, Hats Off to Reading is a festive and free event for all and is paired with a Woodlands Symphony concert aimed directly at concert-going kids.

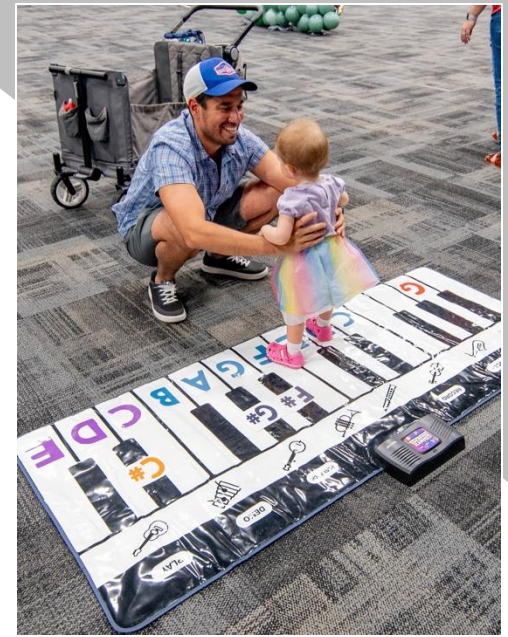

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES Hats Off to Reading features a variety of activity stations that all require volunteers to oversee. These stations include everything from handing out books, coordinating themed games, applying temporary tattoos, making hats and more.

Over 2,500 books given out annually

Over 1,000 kids attend the arts literacy event each year

THE CYNTHIA WOODS MITCHELL
PAVILION
SPONSORED BY HUNTSMAN

FINE ARTS EDUCATION DAYS

October

ABOUT THE PROGRAM Produced in conjunction with Conroe and Spring ISD, Fine Arts Education Day fosters the growth of new audiences and enhances appreciation of the arts through a special performance by the Houston Symphony. Each year, The Pavilion welcomes thousands of Conroe ISD fourth-graders and Spring ISD fifth-graders and provides an incredible opportunity for them to engage with the arts in an inviting and creative way.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES Volunteers are needed in a variety of areas to help facilitate the field trip. Opportunities include assisting with the parking of hundreds of buses and assisting in the plaza/seating areas, directing guests to their assigned seating. All volunteers receive a complimentary breakfast during volunteer orientation.

In 2024: 5,900+ students/teachers from Conroe ISD and 3,000+ students/teachers from Spring ISD attended Fine Arts Education Day

The completely free concert is designed to introduce students to orchestral music before they choose an elective

THE CYNTHIA WOODS MITCHELL
PAVILION
SPONSORED BY HUNTSMAN

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL WEEKEND

November

ABOUT THE PROGRAM The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion is transforming into a giant playground for the annual Children's Festival presented by Texas Children's Hospital—The Woodlands.

With performers on multiple stages, character meet and greets, a special toddler area just for the youngest festivalgoers, arts and crafts, hands-on activities and exciting active adventures, there's something for everyone in the family to enjoy!

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES From kite-making and parachute races to art projects and active adventures around the entire venue, there are plenty of engaging opportunities for volunteers. Weekend volunteers will have access to the Volunteer Hospitality Area where beverages and light snacks are available throughout the duration of the event.

In 2024: Over 10,400 guests visited The Pavilion over two days for the ultimate Barnyard Bash Children's Festival featuring Peppa Pig Live!

SCHOOL DAYS

November

ABOUT THE PROGRAM The Pavilion believes that putting the arts into the hands of children is the best way to create a lifelong appreciation for learning and a deep inspiration for the arts. Each year, The Pavilion offers two days of creativity-driven field trips the venue that provide opportunities for learning through award-winning educational entertainers and hands-on engagement with the arts.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES Volunteers are needed in a variety of areas to help facilitate the field trip. Opportunities include assisting with the parking of hundreds of buses and assisting in the plaza/seating areas, directing guests to their assigned seating. Volunteer assistance is also needed in the three hands-on educational zones. All volunteers receive a complimentary breakfast during volunteer orientation.

In 2024: 7,600+ students/teachers from 36 different schools and 12 school districts attended School Days

Educational Zones feature rocket launching with Janet's Planet, a hands-on drawing class with a renowned artist Mark Kistler and theatre workshops with CYT Houston

INSTRUMENT PETTING ZOO

Various Dates, Locations + Times

ABOUT THE PROGRAM The Pavilion's beloved Instrument Petting Zoo travels to area classrooms, community events and Pavilion arts performances to give kids of all ages the opportunity to see and hear the different instruments of the orchestra—up close and personal! The unique experience provides children (and adults!) with a hands-on exploratory music education experience.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES Enthusiastic volunteers help introduce kids of all ages to the joy of playing a musical instrument by allowing them a unique, hands-on experience handling and producing sounds on orchestra instruments. Prior music experience is preferred but not required.

In 2024, the IPZ introduced thousands of students and families to the various instruments of the orchestra

The Instrument Petting Zoo is completely FREE and travels throughout the Greater Houston area visiting classrooms, libraries, camps and festivals

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Throughout the year

THE PAVILION IS ALWAYS EXPANDING ITS ARTS OUTREACH PROGRAMMING: from summer kick-off dance parties in Market Street to kids theater productions in the Event Center, opportunities to partner with The Pavilion and make the arts accessible to all abound. Whether you're sending 2 employee volunteers or 200, we want to work with you to make an impact on our community together.

TO LEARN MORE OR GET INVOLVED:
EMAIL VOLUNTEER MANAGER ERIN KELLY AT
EKELLY@WOODLANDSCENTER.ORG

THE CYNTHIA WOODS MITCHELL
PAVILION
SPONSORED BY HUNTSMAN