Swiss International Air Lines:

Your flight is booked as an e-ticket and is part of a group booking, so you will simply need to check-in online from 24 hours before departure or at the self service kiosks in Terminal 2 with your passport. It is recommended that you check-in at the airport 2 hours prior to departure. Your flight reference number is quoted above. Your flight includes one checked bag up to 23kg. Ski and boot carriage is provided free of charge by Swiss International and does not have to be pre-booked. You are invited to visit Heston Blumenthal's The Perfectionists' Café at Heathrow Terminal 2. As a guest of Momentum Ski, you can enjoy a complimentary tea/coffee, prosecco or beer when ordering any burger, pizza, fish and chips or full English breakfast. Just show your itinerary to the Perfectionists.

EasyJet:

Your flight is booked as an e-ticket. Your flight reference number is quoted above. You MUST check-in online and print your boarding pass prior to departing for the airport. You can no longer check-in at the airport. As EasyJet flights are sometimes overbooked, we recommend that you complete your online check-in ASAP after receiving this email. EasyJet require all passengers to give their passport information prior to online check-in, please note that if you have booked a party, all the party members will need to supply passport information before check-in can begin. Remember to print boarding passes for both legs of your journey. Your flight includes one checked bag up to 20kg. If you have not paid for ski-carriage you will have to pay for this online when checking in.

Very Important: If for any reason you no longer require or miss your outbound flight, you will not be able to use the inbound return portion of your flight as each airline will automatically cancel your flight in this case. EasyJet does sometimes waive this rule so please contact us for advice.
