November 22nd, 2026

The Danger of Thinking We're Fine

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the culmination of the ages has come. 12So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall! 13No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.
1 Corinthians 10:11-13 (NIV)

Spiritual maturity doesn't come from how long we've followed Jesus, but from how _____ ____ _____ on him.

OVERVIEW

- Past experience is no guarantee of present maturity. (vv. 1-5)
- The failures of the past are warnings for the present. (vv.6-11)
- Humility recognizes vulnerability. (v.12)
- God's faithfulness is greater than our vulnerability. (v.13)

IMPLICATIONS

1. Where might I be confusing spiritual _____ with spiritual _____?
   John 15:4-5

   "Where do you see me growing in my relationship with Jesus? And where do you see I still have some more work to do?"

   "Do you see me becoming more patient, more humble, more generous, more forgiving over the last few years?"

2. Am I relying more on my own strength or _____ _____? Luke 18:13-14; Heb 4:16

TALK IT OVER

Because we believe that the sharing of our ideas and beliefs enhances our spiritual growth in ways teaching alone cannot - we encourage you to join a small group at Sunridge and discuss some of the following questions.

Have you ever been so confident you knew how to do something that you overlooked an important detail or made a mistake? What happened?

Paul reminds the Corinthians that the Israelites experienced remarkable demonstrations of God's power, yet many failed to grow in faithfulness. Why do you think it's possible to be involved in church, know a lot about the Bible, and still not become more like Jesus? What do you think genuine spiritual maturity looks like?

Paul warns, "If you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall!" (v. 12). What are some areas where longtime Christians might become spiritually overconfident or develop blind spots? How can we recognize those blind spots in ourselves?

Paul identifies idolatry, immorality, testing God, and grumbling as examples of Israel's failures. What might these look like in our culture today? How can we recognize when something other than Jesus is beginning to shape our hearts and priorities?

Verse 13 reminds us that "God is faithful" and provides a way through temptation. How does relying on God's faithfulness differ from simply trying harder to be a better Christian? What's one practical step you could take this week to depend more on him?

Did anyone in the group ask the suggested questions of someone they know? What was the feedback?

SUNRIDGE COMMUNITY CHURCH

1 CORINTHIANS
Britt Sipe, Lead Pastor

November 22nd, 2026

The Danger of Thinking We're Fine
1 Corinthians 10:1-13

These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the culmination of the ages has come. 12So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall! 13No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.
1 Corinthians 10:11-13 (NIV)

Spiritual maturity doesn't come from how long we've followed Jesus, but from how deeply we depend on him.

OVERVIEW

- Past experience is no guarantee of present maturity. (vv. 1-5)
- The failures of the past are warnings for the present. (vv.6-11)
- Humility recognizes vulnerability. (v.12)
- God's faithfulness is greater than our vulnerability. (v.13)

IMPLICATIONS

1. Where might I be confusing spiritual familiarity with spiritual maturity? John 15:4-5

"Where do you see me growing in my relationship with Jesus? And where do you see I still have some more work to do?"

"Do you see me becoming more patient, more humble, more generous, more forgiving over the last few years?"

2. Am I relying more on my own strength or God's faithfulness? Luke 18:13-14; Heb 4:16

TALK IT OVER

Because we believe that the sharing of our ideas and beliefs enhances our spiritual growth in ways teaching alone cannot - we encourage you to join a small group at Sunridge and discuss some of the following questions.

Have you ever been so confident you knew how to do something that you overlooked an important detail or made a mistake? What happened?

Paul reminds the Corinthians that the Israelites experienced remarkable demonstrations of God's power, yet many failed to grow in faithfulness. Why do you think it's possible to be involved in church, know a lot about the Bible, and still not become more like Jesus? What do you think genuine spiritual maturity looks like?

Paul warns, "If you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall!" (v. 12). What are some areas where longtime Christians might become spiritually overconfident or develop blind spots? How can we recognize those blind spots in ourselves?

Paul identifies idolatry, immorality, testing God, and grumbling as examples of Israel's failures. What might these look like in our culture today? How can we recognize when something other than Jesus is beginning to shape our hearts and priorities?

Verse 13 reminds us that "God is faithful" and provides a way through temptation. How does relying on God's faithfulness differ from simply trying harder to be a better Christian? What's one practical step you could take this week to depend more on him?

Did anyone in the group ask the suggested questions of someone they know? What was the feedback?